Ginger Dunn Earns National Luxury Home Designation

Bald Head Island, NC – April 23, 2008: Ginger Dunn, real estate agent with Wendy Wilmot Properties on Bald Head Island was recently awarded the Accredited Luxury Home Specialist (ALHS) designation from the Luxury Home Council.

The Accredited Luxury Home Specialist logo is testimony to the agent's training and expertise in the luxury home marketplace. To display the ALHS logo and be accepted into the Luxury Home Council, Ginger successfully completed the Accredited Luxury Home Specialist course, represented a buy or seller in at least two transactions where the purchase prices at least twice the average sales price, and has remained in good standing with the National Association of REALTORS®.

Luxury Home Council members receive numerous benefits to assist in marketing and selling upscale properties. Advantages of membership include access to the member's only section of LuxuryHomeCouncil.com and LuxuryHomesAndProperties.com to market luxury listings, a subscription to The Luxury Home Expert monthly online magazine, discounts on products and services, access to the RALTYU® Alumni Association and the ALHS Database for networking and referral opportunities.

Ginger Dunn joins an elite membership of top real estate agents throughout the United States. Members must subscribe to a dedication like no others. They strive to provide exceptional service to affluent clients throughout rigorous education, focusing on the Luxury Home Market and their understanding of the special demands of affluent buyers and sellers.
